TRANSPORT

Goods lost or damaged in transit are at your risk regardless of whether AllDiesels has organised and or charged for transportation. Many freight companies in Australia operate as 'not common carriers'. AllDiesels recommends insuring your goods for transport. Engines are drained of fluids for transport.

CORE DEPOSITS & RETURNS

The core should be returned on the pallet/frame originally received with the replacement unit. Properly secure the unit to the pallet/frame.

Credit for the returned cores will be issued to the original purchaser. Any damage to the core during shipping due to poor packaging will be reflected in deductions from the core deposit.

Cores that are returned that have not been completely drained of oil will receive a deduction of ten (10) percent of the full core value. Engine cores that are returned in a condition where upon workshop inspection the engine components are found to be unserviceable will be reflected in deductions from the core deposit unless otherwise discussed and noted on the invoice.
